

Directory of Nutrition Services in Waterloo Region

This directory provides information on nutrition services available in Waterloo Region.

It is designed to assist health professionals and community agencies in referring clients to appropriate services.

This resource includes a brief description of services offered by various organizations and how to connect with these services. Please contact the appropriate organization for further details.

For more information on the services provided by Region of Waterloo Public Health call 519-575-4400 (TTY 519-575-4608) or visit www.regionofwaterloo.ca/ph. Accessible formats of this document are available upon request.

Private Practice Dietitian Services

Registered Dietitians in private practice offer a range of nutrition services including presentations, workshops and individual counselling. Clients can self-refer to see a dietitian in private practice.

These services are fee-for-service. However, Registered Dietitian services are covered by some health insurance plans.

Dietitians of Canada offers a searchable database of Registered Dietitians that offer counselling, presentations and other services at www.dietitians.ca/find-a-dietitian.aspx

Sources of Nutrition Education Materials

Registered Dietitians provide evidence-based nutrition information. Here are some services that provide reliable nutrition information to the public:

Call EatRight Ontario at 1-877-510-5102 to speak directly with a Registered Dietitian or visit www.eatrightontario.ca to email a dietitian and find great information and advice on healthy eating.

Dietitians of Canada

Visit the website at www.dietitians.ca to assess your current lifestyle and eating habits, get recipes and tips on cooking and meal planning, find nutrition resources and more.

Public Health Resource Centre loans out teaching kits, DVDs, posters, and books free of charge through their lending library. A large selection of pamphlets are also available. For more information, call 519-575-4400 ext. 2256 or email phrc@regionofwaterloo.ca. To search the catalogue of resources, visit www.regionofwaterloo.ca/phrc.

Region of Waterloo Public Health assumes no liability for any errors or omissions in this listing, or for the services provided by the parties listed in the directory. Registered Dietitians in Ontario are required by the College of Dietitians of Ontario to provide safe, ethical, and competent service. To verify an individual's current registration status with the College of Dietitians of Ontario, phone: 1-800-668-4990 or visit the "find a dietitian" resource on the college website: www.collegeofdietitians.org.
